

Department Of Classics And Humanities

San Diego State University

The Forty-Second Annual

Burnett Lecture In Classics

Celebrity, Scandal, and the Artist's Model Ancient Answers to Modern Dilemmas

Helen Morales

University Of California, Santa Barbara

Friday, April 29, 2011

1:30-2:30 p.m.

Hardy Tower room 140

classicsandhumanities.sdsu.edu

Reception follows

image: Gérôme, Phryne before the Areopagus (1861)

Helen Morales, Professor of Classics (UCSB), is an international authority on the ancient novel and the portrayal of women in the ancient world. She edits the influential classical journal Ramus, and has now edited Penguin Classics' new editions of Petronius' Satyricon (2011) and Greek Fiction (2011).

Per-Hour Visitor Parking in Structures 1 or 4 or in Ace Parking lot near the SDSU trolley stop.

See campus map at site:

<https://sunspot.sdsu.edu/map//index.jsp>